

The Girl Blue Project

... a creative self-awareness program for teenage girls

August 20, 2009

To Whom It May Concern:

I met Tabbatha Mays three years ago when she agreed to teach etiquette at The Girl Blue Project. She has been with us ever since. I find her to be one of the most elegant, poised and intelligent women I have ever met. The Girl Blue Project is an empowerment program for teen girls. "Miss Tabbatha" exudes strength and character and is vital to our program. Our girls need more role models like her. She is knowledgeable, disciplined and a wonderful mentor. Her passion for encouraging young girls to act like young ladies is evident in her teaching methods. I highly recommend her for any position that involves teaching etiquette and/or mentoring youth. She is amazing and highly respected at The Girl Blue Project.

Sincerely,
