Dear Ms. Mays,

Words can't even begin to describe how much I appreciate everything you do for me. I can start to see the changes in myself while being in your program .You make us own up to what we say we want in life rather than just provide lip service. While being in your program I have experienced a boost in not only my confidence but my discipline skills as well. You've dedicated your life to be an inspiration to young women. I was hesitant & stubborn at first but I've come to love this program & you too; you are the inspiration that keeps me striving for excellence. You are like a 3rd mom to me & I mean that literally. You are an angel & it's a shame that you don't get the recognition & appreciation you deserve. So, here I am a student of yours telling you how much I care about you & how much you have convinced me that I have a purpose on this earth; I haven't found it yet but I'm sure with your help I will. I appreciate that you give us so much & ask nothing in return but that we do our best. I love you Ms. Mays & I hope I can come back & teach at your academy one day.

With Love,
