

To Whom It May Concern:

My name is Jazmine Branch. I am one of Ms. Mays' private students. I honestly love my sessions with Ms. Mays. I look to her as a mentor, she might not know it yet, but I really admire her. She's a well-educated woman who knows what she's talking about. She can be on the strict side at times, but that's exactly what a person needs. We need someone who really cares about us, someone who takes time out of their busy day to make ours brighter. We need someone who will press hard to get us to the top and never give up on us! Ms. Mays has such a big heart and we need more people like her around. Like myself, many other young girls are struggling to find themselves, and want to find themselves but have no clue where to go or who to talk to. With Spirits Landing, Ms. Mays is giving young woman their chance to express themselves and love what they see when they look in the mirror. My experience so far has been golden! I have learned so much. I've learned proper etiquette in presenting myself physically, talking over the phone, setting a formal and informal table setting, verbal accuracy, handshakes and their meanings, and so much more. Ms. Mays makes you feel like achieving ANYTHING is far from being arduous; because she's more than a teacher...she's a friend. She can be funny and playful when you need a friend and she can be serious when you need advice.

I have learned how to speak well and stand in front of crowds with my head high, full of confidence. I have learned how to set goals for my life and not be afraid to reach for the stars. I have learned so much from Ms. Mays. I am truly blessed to have her in my life. I'm so grateful I have someone like her believing in me and standing with me every step of the way. She is helping me with my health, my career in acting, my personal issues, and most importantly, she's helping me become that excellent, well-rounded, intelligent, impeccable, phenomenal young woman I've always wanted to be.

I strongly recommend all young women who need that extra boost in life, to go for the best and try to attend a session with Ms. Tabbatha Mays at Spirits Landing. It's one of the best things I've ever done and I'm so glad she invited me. This process has made me feel more eligible to be independent, strong willed, self motivated, hopeful, and happy. It's really rewarding to know that I have someone I can call on for help. She's done great things for me, and she would do it for the world if she had the chance...I just know it.

Sincerely,

Jazmine Branch
